A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Perhaps you have heard it said, and maybe you have said it yourself, “What strange times we are living in because of the Covid 19. We were unable to celebrate Thanksgiving the way we normally do. No big family get togethers. No traveling to grandma's house. No getting up early to get the turkey stuffed and into the oven. Perhaps, you were able to get the family together via zoom or some other social media. But it sure was different.

And next, what to do about Christmas? Will we be able to get together for the exchanging of gifts, and then another big meal?

And then there are all the political tensions and disagreements.

How will we get through all of this with all the uncertainties? As I thought about this, two things came to mind.

Psalms 46, “The Lord is my refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear though the earth should be changed, though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam, . . . the Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.”

And then from one of our most familiar hymns, “A mighty fortress is our God, a bulwark never failing. He breaks the cruel oppressor's rod, . . . Were they to take our house, goods, Honor, child or spouse, though life be wrenched away, they cannot win the day. The kingdom's ours forever!”

So these two things, as well as many others in scripture and hymns, remind us that no matter how bad things appear to be, we have strength in knowing that God is with us always and He will see us through these times, as He has done in other difficult times. We need to trust in Him.

It goes without saying that 2020 has been a year like no other in modern history and yet the work of Jesus has stayed the same. As I write this, Thanksgiving is only a few days away and I was truly looking forward to spending it with my family but like many of you, we are staying home. Of course that will not stop us from making and eating way too much food!

As I reflect on this holiday season and the story of Jesus' birth found in Matthew, I am reminded that the lives of Mary, Joseph, and the baby Jesus were in jeopardy. Matthew 2:13 writes: Now after they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "get up, take the child and his mother and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him. We can see that the birth of Jesus was anything but sparkling and festive. But, let's not forget the angels for they were singing: Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors (Luke 2:14)!

Perhaps that's what we get to focus on this year, rather than all the gifts, food, and parties, we instead look to see how the angels celebrated. Now, I'm not saying we all gather in our best angel outfits but we can still sing and proclaim the birth of Jesus to the world. So a couple of ideas for all of us during this holiday season as we prepare for the coming of Jesus.

For Advent this year, we will be meeting for devotions via zoom at 7:00 pm on Wednesday evenings. You will be able to find the zoom link on our Facebook page. Each week we will focus on one of the advent candles: watch, wait, wonder, and worship. Our Sunday schoolers will be getting Advent Bags with pictures of candles, each with the theme words on the candle. They are being asked to place the picture of the candle in their front windows as a witness and reminder of Christ coming again. Maybe you'll want to put up your own picture of a candle in your window too.

We will also continue our weekly, Sunday video services and post them on Facebook. For Christmas Eve we plan on doing something new! We will gather at 4:00 pm on Christmas Eve, outside, and will walk to different places around the church. The title of our Christmas Eve service will be: A Walk in Search of the Baby Jesus. Please plan to join us and dress warm!

And then during the week of Christmas, I ask that you share a picture of your nativity scene on our Facebook page. I'll send out a reminder.

These are just a few ways we plan to celebrate as a community as we watch, wait, wonder and worship God for all the wonderful things God has done for us and continues to do during these days. Please know, I continue to hold all of you in prayer.

Let us pray:

Stir up your power, Lord Christ, and come. As darkness fans, may we watch for your light. Keep us awake and alert to your coming and strengthen us to the end, that we may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Dear Friends in Christ,

“So, let us not grow weary in doing what is right...” Galatians 6:9a

While on the run from King Saul, and hiding in the Wilderness of Judah, David wrote these opening words of Psalm 63.

“O God, you are my God, I seek you, my soul thirsts for you; my flesh faints for you, as in a dry and weary land...”

But it's not just the land that is weary. We too have grown weary. Weary of a contentious election cycle. Weary of cultural divisiveness. Weary of social media posts. Weary of COVID 19 and trying to safely lead a parish through a Global Pandemic. I am particularly weary of trying to find a face covering that keeps my glasses from fogging up. I have not been successful. So, what is making you weary these days?

Last week, I was on a Conference Call with Governor Mike DeWine. He requested the call, because he wanted to reach out to religious leaders in Ohio to provide an update on the COVID19 pandemic. He is concerned about the rising cases of infection, especially in the rural areas of Ohio. He is concerned about the change of seasons and the cooler weather which is moving us into indoor spaces. He is also concerned that we have grown weary of taking the necessary precautions.

On our call Governor DeWine pointed to three seasons that we have experienced with the COVID 19 virus. The spring season of March and April, when we all worked together to “flatten the curve”. The summer season of June and July, when urban areas were hit particularly hard, and many of us began to wear face coverings. Governor DeWine argues that the use of face coverings lowered the spread of infections in these summer “hot spots”. Now we are in the fall season, and cases are rising in the rural areas of Ohio. Many of these new cases are directly related to large family gatherings, weddings, and in-person worship services. Many of these events are still occurring throughout Ohio without any precautions being taken.

Even when folks take the necessary precautions, the COVID19 virus can find a way. Calvary Lutheran Church in Northwood, Ohio, was recently impacted by the virus and four people were infected. As I talked and prayed with the pastor, he assured me that they worked very hard to take the proper precautions. I am grateful that the four folks who were infected are recovering and gaining their health and strength.

In the Letter to the Galatians, St. Paul reminds us to not grow weary in doing what is right. Dear Friends in Christ, this is not the time to let our guard down and grow weary. Please follow your Parish Plans of Return. Please show some love and grace to your pastors, deacons, and parish leaders, who are trying so very hard to keep you and the community safe. Please do your part as a follower of Jesus to encourage, strengthen, and build up the people around you. So, let us not grow weary of being the people whom God has called us to be.

And at the end of these weary days, I would encourage you to reflect on these words from Jesus:

“Come to me, all you that are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me; for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.” (Matthew 11:28-30).

Bless you,

Bishop Daniel G. Beaudoin

The ELCA WORLD HUNGER Tree is up and ready for you to choose an ornament from it. This is how this works: pick an ornament from the tree which you would like to support, take it and a form with you, fill out the information needed on the form, place the money and form in an envelope, and bring it back next week with you or mail to the church office. You get to keep the ornament to give to the person you have honored or a family member of someone you have memorialized. All memorials or honoraria will be listed in the Christmas Eve bulletin.

Even though services are being cancelled you can still participate in this mission. Just call the church office and Carol will help you pick out an ornament and fill out the form. Send in or drop your donation off and you will be all set.
